Internal Appeals Procedures

(Exams)

2016/17

These procedures are reviewed annually to ensure compliance with current regulations

Reviewed March 2017

1. Appeals procedure against internally assessed marks

Whitgift School is committed to ensuring that whenever teachers mark candidates' work this is done fairly, consistently and in accordance with the regulations and awarding body's specification and subject-specific associated documents.

Candidates' work will be marked by staff who have appropriate knowledge, understanding and skill, and who have been trained in this activity. Whitgift School is committed to ensuring that work produced by candidates is authenticated in line with the requirements of the awarding body. Where a number of subject teachers are involved in marking candidates' work, internal moderation and standardisation will ensure consistency of marking.

If a candidate believes that this may not have happened in relation to his work he may make use of this appeals procedure.

N.B: an appeal may only be made against the assessment process and not against the mark to be submitted to the awarding body

1. Appeals should be made as early as possible in order to ensure that the internal appeals process is completed prior to the submission of centre marks to the awarding body.
2. Appeals must be made in writing (*using the internal appeals form)
3. The Deputy Head, on behalf of the Head of Centre, will appoint a senior member of staff, e.g. the Head of Upper School, or a Head of Year, or an Assistant Head, to conduct the investigation. The senior member of staff will not have had any involvement in the internal assessment process for that subject.
4. The purpose of the appeal will be to decide whether the process used for the internal assessment conformed to the awarding body's specification and subject-specific associated documents.
5. The appellant will be informed in writing of the outcome of the appeal, including any relevant correspondence with the awarding body, and any changes made to internal assessment procedures.
6. The outcome of an appeal will be made known to the Head of Centre. A written record will be kept and made available to the awarding body upon request. Should the appeal bring any irregularity in procedures to light, the awarding body will be informed.

After candidates' work has been internally assessed, it is moderated by the awarding body to ensure consistency in marking between centres. The moderation may lead to mark changes. This process is outside the control of Whitgift School and is not covered by this procedure.

2. Appeals procedure against centre decisions not to support an enquiry about results

Following the issue of results, awarding bodies make post-results services available. If a head of centre is dissatisfied with examination results and has reasons to suspect they may not be accurate, the first step is to make an enquiry about results. Full details of these services, internal deadlines for requesting a service and fees charged are provided by the exams officer and are clearly shown on the Enquiries About Results: Request and Consent Form.

The service, Enquiries About Results (EARs), may be requested by candidates (or their parents/carers). Candidates must first have a discussion with the relevant Head of Department and Head of Year as relevant before submitting an EAR Request Form. Senior members of centre staff will be accessible to candidates immediately after the publication of results so that results may be discussed and decisions made on the submission of enquiries. Candidates will be informed of the periods during which centre staff will be available so that they may plan accordingly.

The centre may sometimes disagree with a candidate's request to submit an EAR, as candidates' marks and subject grades may be lowered as a result of an enquiry. If the candidate (or their parent/carer) believes there are grounds to appeal against the centre's decision not to support an EAR, an appeal can be submitted to the centre using the internal appeals form. Forms must be handed in at least one week prior to the internal deadline for submitting an EAR. Deadlines will be clearly shown on EAR Request Forms.

3. Appeals procedure following the outcome of an enquiry about results

Where the head of centre remains dissatisfied after receiving the outcome of an EAR, an appeal will be made to the awarding body, following the guidance in the JCQ publications Post-results services <http://www.jcq.org.uk/exams-office/post-results-services> and A guide to the awarding bodies' appeals processes <http://www.jcq.org.uk/exams-office/appeals>

Where the Head of Centre is satisfied after receiving the outcome of an EAR, but the internal candidate and/or their parent/carer is not satisfied, they may make a further representation to the head of centre. Following this, the Head of Centre will make a decision as to whether to proceed with an appeal to the Awarding Body. Candidates or parents/carers are not permitted to make direct representations to an awarding body. Candidates will be informed of the decision.

The internal appeals form should be completed and submitted to the centre within 7 calendar days of the notification of the outcome of the enquiry. Subject to the Head of Centre's decision, this will allow the centre to process the appeal and submit to the awarding body within the required 14 calendar days. Awarding body fees which may be charged for the appeal must be paid by the appellant on submission of the internal appeals form. If the appeal is upheld by the awarding body, this fee will be refunded by the awarding body and repaid to the appellant by the centre.

Internal appeals form

This form should be completed in all cases to lodge an appeal.

Please tick to indicate what the appeal is against:

- 1. Internally assessed marks
- 2. The centre decision not to support an enquiry about results
- 3. The centre decision not to submit an appeal against the outcome of an enquiry about results

3. Appeal against the outcome of an enquiry about results

Appellant declaration

By signing here, I am confirming I understand that the grounds for my appeal must relate to the awarding body's procedures or the application of the post-result service procedures. I also understand that appeals do not generally involve further reviews of marking candidates' work. I also confirm that I will pay in advance any fees which may be charged by the awarding body for the appeal. I understand this fee will be refunded if the appeal is upheld.

The appellant declaration against the relevant appeal must be signed, dated and returned to the EO, on behalf of the head of centre, to the timescale indicated in the internal appeals procedure.

By submitting this form you are acknowledging your understanding that following an Enquiry About Results and/or an Appeal, your examination grades can go down.

The internal appeals procedures for this centre have been produced to demonstrate compliance with the publications below.

JCQ General Regulations for approved centres <http://www.jcq.org.uk/exams-office/general-regulations>

Controlled Assessments, Coursework and Portfolios of Evidence

5.8 The centre agrees to have in place, and be available for inspection purposes, a written internal appeals procedure relating to internal assessment decisions and to ensure that details of this procedure are made widely available and accessible to all candidates.

Post-Results Services and Appeals

5.14 The centre agrees to have available for inspection purposes and draw to the attention of candidates and their parents/carers, a written internal appeals procedure to manage disputes when a candidate disagrees with a centre decision not to support an enquiry about results or an appeal.

JCQ Post-results services <http://www.jcq.org.uk/exams-office/post-results-services>

6.4 Submission of requests

Centres must have in place a published formal appeals procedure for use in cases where centres and candidates, or their parents/carers, cannot agree as to whether an enquiry about results should be submitted. The formal appeals procedure must be made widely available. Centres must therefore draw the appeals procedure to the attention of candidates and their parents/carers. In deciding whether to support an enquiry about results, centres should take account of all relevant factors and afford candidates or their parents/carers a reasonable opportunity to express their views. Awarding bodies can only enter into discussions over enquiries about results with centres and private candidates.

7. Appeals

Centres must have in place a published formal appeals procedure for use in cases where centres and candidates, or their parents/carers, cannot agree as to whether an appeal should be submitted to the relevant awarding body. The formal appeals procedure must be made widely available. Centres must therefore draw the appeals procedure to the attention of candidates and their parents/carers. In deciding whether to support an appeal, centres should take account of all relevant factors and afford candidates or their parents/carers a reasonable opportunity to express their views. Awarding bodies can only enter into discussions over appeals with centres and private candidates.

However in summer 2016, JCQ issued the following information in their Notice to Centres – Post-Results Services and Appeals

The JCQ publication Post-Results Services – Information and guidance to centres for examinations taken in June 2016 and November 2016 sets out common arrangements. Although the published information remains valid for the June 2016 examination series, this supplementary document clarifies some key points associated with the reform of post-results services and appeals.

Centres should also refer to awarding bodies' websites for further information as awarding bodies may offer additional post-results services.

JCQ A guide to the awarding bodies' appeals processes <http://www.jcq.org.uk/exams-office/appeals>

12. Please note that internal candidates and/or their parents/carers are not entitled to appeal directly to the awarding body. Representations must be made to the head of centre where the candidate was entered or registered. The head of centre's decision as to whether to proceed with an appeal is subject to the centre's internal appeals arrangements.

Ofqual GCSE, GCE, Principal Learning and Project Code of Practice

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/gcse-gce-principal-learning-and-project-code-of-practice>

9.13 The awarding organisation must require centres offering its examinations to ensure that they have in place:

- iii. a formal, codified procedure for handling disputes when a candidate or carer disagrees with a decision by the centre not to support an enquiry.

Centres must be required to ensure that the procedures are published and made widely available and accessible to all candidates and their carers.

9.14 In deciding whether to support an enquiry or appeal, centres should take account of all relevant factors and afford candidates or their carers a reasonable opportunity to express their views.

However in summer 2016, JCQ issued the following information in the Notice to Centres – Post-Results Services and Appeals

Ofqual has announced that the Code of Practice in relation to GCE AS, A-level and GCSE qualifications will be withdrawn in August 2016, being replaced by Qualification Level Conditions. Centres may, however, continue to refer to the Code of Practice for the awarding bodies' provision of post-results services and appeals, June 2016 examination series.

Arrangements for the awarding bodies' provision of post-results services and appeals, November 2016 examination series, may be subject to change. Centres will be notified of any changes in due course.

Appellants should consult the full information in the above publications to be fully informed when stating their grounds for appeal.
